ARBITRATION PANEL POSTPONES HEARING TO APRIL

Washougal, Wash. – An arbitration hearing originally scheduled for December 1-5, 2008, between the Port of Camas-Washougal and RiverWalk on the Columbia, LLC, will be postponed to April 6-10, 2009, with the Judicial Arbitration Mediation Services (JAMS), headquartered in Seattle, Wash.

“The original schedule was ambitious, given the complexity of the case,” said Port counsel, Shawn MacPherson. “The ongoing discovery process including numerous depositions, and document exchange necessitated the continuation of the trial.”

In addition, the JAMS arbitration panel is requiring both parties to maintain confidentiality until the conclusion of the trial as provided by JAMS rules. As previously scheduled, the arbitration hearing will be held in Clark County, Washington, in closed sessions.

ABOUT THE PORT OF CAMAS-WASHOUGAL
